

The C-clamping hydraulic die clamping system is designed for clamping dies of various widths on press slides. The clamping actuator moves automatically in the T-slot of the press slide between the park position and the respective die. Hydraulic pressure is at a maximum 400 bar.