

Self-traveling (Automatic) quick die changing system with mechanical disk-spring Belleville washer style clamping

The mechanical disk-spring washer style die clamping system is designed for clamping dies of various widths on press slides. The clamping actuator moves automatically in the T-slot of the press slide between the park position and the respective die. Clamping is performed by belleville spring washers and hydraulic unclamping.